

RIVERSIDE COUNTY PROBATION DEPARTMENT

Serving Courts • Protecting Our Community • Changing Lives

Course Title: (Class 1.2: Roles and Responsibilities)

Hours of Instruction: 2

Course Objectives:

- 1.2.1 Identify the roles and responsibilities of the probation officer. (MCT)
- 1.2.2 Identify the major roles and responsibilities of the officer in relation to key stakeholders (e.g., community/victims, state of California, county probationers/offenders and their families, law enforcement service providers, etc.). (MCT)
- 1.2.3 Identify the roles of the district attorney, probation officer, defense counsel, and court in the plea negotiation process. (MCT)
- 1.2.4 Identify the probation department's responsibilities to offenders. (MCT)
- 1.2.5 Identify various probation officer roles, from rehabilitation to the enforcement of court orders including mental health, vocational counseling, substance abuse, educational counseling and case management. (MCT)
- 1.2.6 Identify the responsibilities of the probation officer in aiding in criminal investigations. (MCT)
- 1.2.7 Identify the role of probation in crime intervention programs. (MCT)
- 1.2.8 Identify probation's role in working with community stakeholders to reduce crime and recidivism. (MCT)
- 1.2.9 Identify probation's role regarding the Student Attendance Review Board. (MCT)