

RIVERSIDE COUNTY PROBATION DEPARTMENT

Serving Courts • Protecting Our Community • Changing Lives

Course Title: (Class 8.3: Community Supervision)

Hours of Instruction: 4

Course Objectives:

- 8.3.1 Identify the court process to a probationer. (MCT)
- 8.3.2 Identify the ramification of probation orders on the probationer's family and significant others. (MCT)
- 8.3.3 Identify the benefits of complying with conditions of probation. (MCT)
- 8.3.4 Identify consequences for non-compliance with conditions of probation. (MCT)
- 8.3.5 In a simulated interview, demonstrate interview techniques to motivate an offender to comply with conditions of probation. (BST)
- 8.3.6 Identify the resources in the community to assist a probationer and/or family member. (MCT)
- 8.3.7 Identify case characteristics to consider when referring a probationer for services in the community. (MCT)
- 8.3.8 Identify when a professional evaluation of a probationer is required (medical, psychological, alcohol, drug, etc.). (MCT)
- 8.3.9 Identify what should be considered when making a program referral for a probationer. (MCT)
- 8.3.10 Identify how to assist probationers with job referrals and employment services. (MCT)
- 8.3.11 Given a sample case file, completed assessment, and description of services available in the local community, refer the probationer to services in the community. (WST)
- 8.3.12 Identify how to prepare a case for referral to an outside agency. (MCT)
- 8.3.13 Identify the resources in the community to assist victims. (MCT)
- 8.3.14 Identify the process of referring victims to local community services. (MCT)
- 8.3.15 Identify the indicators that a staff member is being victimized. (MCT)

8.3.16 Identify the actions an officer should take when they feel they have been manipulated.
(MCT)